

Sniffy Workshops With Judith Guthrie

Step into the world of scent work with one of America's most dynamic and respected trainers! Judith Guthrie's journey began among working dogs—her childhood was filled with police and search & rescue canines, sparking a lifelong passion for unlocking every dogs' potential.

Judith isn't merely a trainer—she's a trusted provider of detection dogs to federal, state, and local agencies, shaping teams that protect and serve communities nationwide. As a fierce competitor and sought-after judge in multiple sport scent/nose work associations (NACSW, AKC, USCSS), she brings the thrill of competition & the wisdom of experience to every workshop.

Her teaching reaches far and wide: Judith travels the country as a national clinician, delivering in-person private lessons and small group sessions wherever her schedule takes her. She's also a leading voice online, offering a host of classes and webinars through Scent Work University, and sharing insights in The Nose Dogs Newsletter & AKC Judges Debriefs—followed by hundreds of passionate handlers.

What sets Judith apart? Her infectious enthusiasm, her knack for breaking down complex behaviors, and her unwavering belief that every team has untapped potential.
